

Press Release – Gang Show 2005
29th November 2004

GO GANG GO

The St Albans Guide and Scout Gang Show 2005 promises to be one of the highlights of the Alban Arena's new 2005 season. "Now in its 26th year, the show always plays to packed houses" says Gang Show producer David Barker. He is a little cagey when asked about what's in store for this year's show, only saying that "...the King is not dead!..."

So what do the cast of 125 St Albans Guides, Scouts and Explorers make of it all. "It's just like a West End show" says Thomas Ivory, aged 15, a seasoned Gang Show performer, with 3 shows under his belt. "People who come are surprised at how professional the show is. We rehearse for a gruelling 4 months, learning over 40 songs and almost as many dance routines, but it's worth it on the night. Forget the X Factor or Pop Idol, being in the Gang Show is just so cool, it's the best feeling in the world!"

So don't miss out, book early if you want to share in the Gang Show experience. The show runs from Wednesday 9th to Saturday 12th February 2005. Tickets are on sale now priced from £5 to £10.50. Please call Nicola or Phil Wells on 01727 830397 to make a booking.

- ends -

Note to Editors:

Please refer to the picture disc from Roger Morton roger@rhm.org.uk mobile 077 6720 2760

- Picture 1 – The Queue
- Picture 2 – First in Queue – picture shows Jack Hornby, a cast member and explorer scout camped outside the Scout HQ in Waverley Road.
- Picture 3 – First Tickets – picture shows Jack with his lucky first tickets!

Interviews can be arranged on request with members of the Gang Show cast and production team.

For further information please contact:

Kate Cornmell 01727 760884 Email katecornmell@ntlworld.com