

Media Release

St Albans Gang Show 2006

Release date: 27th November 2005

Bacon butties warm those on a quest for the best seats in town at next years Gang Show!

A chilly night didn't deter those after the best seats for the 2006 St Albans Guide and Scout Gang Show, performing at the Alban Arena from Wednesday 8th to Saturday 11th February 2006. In true Scouting tradition, bacon butties were on hand to warm the die-hards, many of whom had been queuing all night. (See picture on disc).

"We always do well on the first day." says Nicola Wells who runs the Box Office on behalf of the show. "It's the same every year, with the Friday and Saturday evening performances especially popular."

Since 1980 literally thousands of young people have been given the opportunity to perform in the St Albans Scout & Guide Gang Show. "Being in the Gang Show is just so cool" says cast member James Cornmell, age 12, "it was my first year last year and I had the most fab time ever, singing my favourite pop songs and learning big West End dance numbers with the best people!"

The good news is that there are still tickets available for some performances, priced from €5 to £11. So don't miss out, book now by calling Nicola or Phil Wells on 01727 830397.

To find out more about the St Albans Gang Show why not visit their newly launched website at www.stalbansgangshow.com

- Ends -

Note to Editors:

Please refer to the picture disc from Roger Morton

Email: roger@fantasticphotos.org - mobile 077 6720 2760

- Picture 1 - The queue enjoying bacon rolls in the early hours.
- Picture 2 - By 11 a.m. thousands of tickets had already been sold.

For further information please contact:

Kate Cornmell 01727 760884 (0774 779 5346)

Email katecornmell@ntlworld.com